

The Cuban Family History and Genealogy Project

Thank you for contributing to the Cuban Family History and Genealogy Project and help us preserve our family's ethnic and cultural past, while supporting programs that document, preserve and promote Cuban family history and genealogy. Your Cuban Family History and Genealogy Research Kit will be mailed to you as soon as possible to help you get started in the road to documenting your Cuban family's heritage. The kit includes the Cuban Family History and Genealogy Research Guide, outlining the most important steps on "how to" research family history and genealogy. The guide includes a comprehensive list of civil and ecclesiastic archives and repositories in Cuba and Spain. The kit also includes family history data sheets, ancestry charts and a three ring notebook; all in a convenient carry on canvas tote bag. By contributing, you will also be able to participate in family history seminars, workshops and other events.
